

	SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY
8.30-10:00		Introductions and workshop goals (Smith and Tickell)	Training in research design #1  Led by Leyshon & Barnes	Plenary presentation #2: Barnes discussion of Understanding the quantitative revolution Led by Tickell, Thrift, Leyshon, Barnes, Peck (all journal editors)	Meet the authors/journal publishing (inc of pre-circulated manuscripts) Led by	Ethics and research  Glasmeier
10:00-10:30		Coffee	Coffee	Coffee	Coffee	Coffee
10:30-12:30		Discussion panel #1: Should economic geography have boundaries?	Plenary presentation #1: Glasmeier  'Making geography count in policy work'	Training in combining methods:  Led by Kelvyn Jones, Professor of Quantitative Human Geogrpahy Bristol and Tickell	Plenary presentation #3: Hudson  Politics and practice in economic geography	Plenary presentation #4: Leyshon  Practicing research
12:30-2:00		Lunch	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch	Lunch
2:00-3:00	Participants arrive	Breakout: facilitated small group discussions  Report back from small group discussions	Discussion panel #2: economic geography in conversation with economic sociology  With Tickell Peck, Hudson Huw Beynon (Cardiff), Andrew Sayer (Lancaster)	Field trip  Led by Tickell, Leyshon and Smith	Discussion panel #3 engaging with the world outside: discussion of policy, research, community and media relations  Led by Hudson Tickell	Writing successful grant proposals  Led by Hudon et al
3:30-4:00		Tea	Tea		Tea	Tea
4:00-5:00		Participant led discussion of recent "state of the art" collections in economic geography  Facilitated by Smith	Breakout: facilitated small group discussions		Breakout: facilitated small group discussions	Workshop evaluation and future plans
5:00-7:00	Reception welcome from Vice Chancellor Eric Thomas		Film in teaching and learning: Storyville	Conference dinner	Reception	Farewell reception